

TO- All Parish Council Community Life Chairpersons in Regina Diocese

FROM- Marjorie McFarlane, Regina Diocesan Community Life Chair

Hello, everyone. I am your new community life chair person for the Regina Diocesan council. I live in Fort Qu'Appelle Sask. I have four grown children [three left living], six grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

In past I have held the CWL president chair at council level for ten years, and regional chairperson with Regina Diocesan for two years, also I am in parish council representing CWL for the past three years.

- SOCIAL JUSTICE AWARD;

CWL members between ages 18-35 and in good standing for the past five years may apply.

The provincial council has established a $1000.00, Social Justice award to enable young women to engage in Social Justice.

The application deadline is Apr 30th of the given year. The nominee must have demonstrated leadership, generosity of spirit, and living the mission of the League.

Nominations for the Social Justice award may be submitted by the parish, diocesan, or provincial council.

If you or someone you know are interested in this program talk to your council president or your parish priest.

An application form is included in this mailing. Please advertise this in your parish bulletin.

- DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE;

Development and Peace are celebrating 50 years of solidarity 1967-2017.

In Afghanistan 85% of women are illiterate. For a woman, life expectancy is 51. There are many cases of violence against women.

In Sierra Leone only 9.5% of women have secondary education, 1/3 of women are married before age 18.

CWL members may get a free Development and Peace membership for life to join a cross Canada movement for global peace and justice.

From Sept 01-2016-Oct 20th-2017 you may visit the website to register your name at devp.org/membership-----more voices=greater change

This concludes my report.
