Here I Am Lord Send Me Isaiah 6:8

Hello Sisters in the League! Shari Guinta, National CWL President has picked the new CWL National theme! You will find prayer cards with the logo in the League Maga-

CWL and Parish News

CWL, along with the K of C will be holding our Spring Fling on Saturday, April 20. Once again we will be having the garage sale, puzzles and book sale, bake sale, clothing, mini-affle, grocery hamper raffle and of course the kitchen with the Knights of Columbus serving breakzine.

I feel it is a very fitting theme for not only our council but for all councils across the county. As many are aware, the CWL is struggling to maintain its memberships. St. Joseph's CWL also has its struggles but we are persevering!! I am very pleased to report that we have elected a new executive for St Joseph's council.

Our faithful President will be Geralyn Allen; Secretary is Tannis Lehman; Treasurer is Katie Haubich. For Faith convenorship we have Paula Haubrich; Service, including Membership, convenor is Korie Reinbold and Social Justice is Lilliana Klebek. We unfortunately do not have a president elect yet.

fast. There will be a pie and dessert room but no perogies or cabbage rolls. This has always been our biggest fund-raiser and hope everyone supports us again.

CWL will be providing lunch and snacks for the Confirmation retreat to be held at our parish March 3. CWL will be

So exciting that we have new faces leading us for the next two years! They answered God's call: Here I am Lord!

Korie is collecting membership dues for the 2024 year, starting in December. Our annual membership to $40.00. We would love to welcome any new members. We plan on celebrating our members by presenting you with Years of Service pins on April 28 2024 following Mass.
